

Chariton Courier.

C. P. VANDIVER, Editor and Prop'r.

KEYTESVILLE, MISSOURI.

Entered at the post-office at Keytesville, Mo., as second-class mail matter.

Friday, April 28, 1893.

Buy your paint at Holcomb's.

J. T. Swain & Son lead on groceries.

A special term of probate court was in session Monday.

The Mound City point is second to none. Holcomb carries it.

Horace Mann made a flying trip to Moberly last Tuesday.

Buy the Baker Perfect Barb Wire of the Keytesville Lumber Co.

Prof. J. P. Coleman was in Salisbury yesterday on business.

Farming implements of every description at Kitting & Walter's.

Millard Courtney is transacting business in Sedalia this week.

No adulterated lead or oil should be used. Holcomb never handles it.

C. B. Crawley was in St. Louis Tuesday and Wednesday on business.

The closest margins on lumber can be had at the Keytesville Lumber Co's.

C. S. Scott is attending United States court, at Kansas City, this week as a juror.

Remember the fine buggy to be given away by Kitting & Walter next fall.

Miss Ruth Veatch, of Kansas City, is the guest of the family of J. C. Crawley.

C. R. Mason, of Brunswick, was interviewing the board of appeals Monday.

The Brookfield mantel for the Missouri building at the world's fair is completed.

Mayor Ford spent the latter part and the first of this week rusticating in the country.

The Keytesville Lumber Co. keep the celebrated Lincoln Mixed Paints, guaranteed first-class.

W. H. Bradley, of Salisbury, was smiling on his many Keytesville friends Wednesday.

Mrs. C. P. Vandiver's line of spring and summer millinery is now complete in every department.

Misses Myrtle Ford and Zettie Bean are in Kansas City this week visiting Mrs. Richard Vanborn.

All the latest designs in ladies' handkerchiefs, both in linen and chiffon, at Mrs. C. P. Vandiver's.

Frank Schell leaves next Monday to accept a position with Salisbury's cigar manufacturer, Mr. Jacobs.

No barb wire equals the Glidden for strength and capacity in making a fence. Holcomb handles it.

It has recently leaked out that Recorder B. H. Smith contemplates making a trip to Triplett next week.

Holcomb has repaired and rebuilt his lumber sheds and now is filling them with fresh stock. Call and see him.

Misses Cora Banning and Maud Ford, of near Salisbury, are visiting friends and relatives in Brookfield this week.

W. D. Vaughan, one of Keytesville's enterprising hardware merchants, has been confined to his room several days this week.

Mrs. John A. Lee and her little son, Richard, are spending the week in Jefferson City with her husband, who has a lucrative clerkship there.

Mrs. Dr. Jeter came over from Slater Friday to be present at the graduation of her daughter, Miss Nettie. Both returned to Slater Monday.

"A man lives in Boone county," says the Columbia Herald, "who saw the first railroad built in the world, the last railroad built in Missouri, but never rode a mile on a railroad in his life."

Smoke the El Parre at S. M. White & Co's.

Holcomb handles garden tools and garden seeds.

B. L. Singleton, of near Indian Grove, was at the capital Tuesday.

Call on Kitting & Walter, Keytesville, for your plows.

Wheat is looking much better since the late heavy rains.

T. J. Rose, one of the brick mason's, spent Sunday in Moberly.

The county board of equalization was in session Monday and Tuesday.

The Star thinks Summer ought to have a good one-day fair this year.

Mrs. Seth Singleton is visiting relatives in St. Clair county this week.

Meese. Moore & Bartz are having their street car stable dressed up in red paint.

The jovial Don Anderson, of Mendon, did business at the capital Tuesday.

Don't forget the old reliable La Take and Monogram cigars at S. M. White & Co's.

Brother Cash, of the Marceline Mirror, was an attendant at circuit court here last Friday.

Capt. J. C. Wallace was in Brunswick last Saturday and also Wednesday of this week.

The cold, rainy weather continues, and the farmers are depressed in spirits accordingly.

The Triplett Rustler sends up this wail: "Put up the cows, fellow-citizens, or walk on stilts."

Ex-Sheriff J. J. Moore has bought the J. R. Redman residence property on East Bridge street for $1,275.

Miss Minnie Miller is in Callaway county, where she will spend several weeks, the guest of Miss Jennie Harrison, of near Aux Vasse.

Elder G. W. Phillips, a Christian minister hailing from Pilot Grove, Cooper county, will preach, at Triplett, next Sunday, morning and evening.

Misses Lizzie Bowman and Lizzie Cunningham, two of Brunswick's charming young ladies, visited friends in this city several days since our last issue.

The Columbia and Fulton ball teams crossed bats on the former's ball park Monday, resulting in a victory for the Columbia boys by a score of 22 to 18.

Henry Ehrhardt, a prosperous farmer of near Salisbury, was at the county seat Tuesday on business, and while here made us a pleasant and substantial call.

The genial John P. Randolph, of Brunswick, was at the capital Tuesday, stating his grievance to the board of appeals of the county board of equalization.

Elder J. A. Boyer, evangelist, closed a meeting, at Moberly, Monday night which had been in progress for five weeks, resulting in over 200 additions to the Christian church.

A severe hail and rain storm visited Fairville, Saline county, Monday morning, flooding everything in its path. Fences were badly damaged and numerous bridges washed out.

A terrific cyclone passed over a section of country, near Belton, Mo., Tuesday laying waste houses, haystacks, farming implements, trees and fencing. Fortunately no lives were lost.

J. V. Whitesides was presented with a pair of Colorado quails last Saturday by J. J. Moore. Joe is quite proud of them, and will endeavor to raise some young birds this season.

A. P. Price, of Glasgow; W. S. Stockwell and John Clark, of Salisbury; C. Hammond and T. S. Griffin, of Brunswick, and O. F. Libby, of Laclede, were registered at the Sneed hotel Monday.

Strayed.

From my premises, near Craneville, a large black sow, thin in order, with hole in left and crop off and underbit in the right ear. Will pay suitable reward for information leading to her recovery.

1t14

L. Y. Cross.

Smoke the El Parre at S. M. White & Co's.

Mrs. Willard Franklin, of three miles north of Keytesville, is quite sick.

Don't forget the old reliable La Take and Monogram cigars at S. M. White & Co's.

Henry Dobbin, one of Triplett township's substantial farmers, has our thanks for favors while at the capital Monday.

The Keytesville Building & Loan association meets next Tuesday night to elect officers and a board of directors for the ensuing year.

W. C. Pitman and his estimable wife, of near Indian Grove, were at the capital Monday, and while here honored our sanctum with a pleasant call.

Misses Anne Grinstead and Jessie Arrington, returned Tuesday from St. Louis, where they had been visiting for some time, with relatives and friends.

The following unique sign adorns the wall in a Brunswick lunch counter establishment:

"I trusted and got beat; If you can't pay, don't eat."

If you want a set of harness—in fact, anything in the harness line, come to Keytesville and get J. T. Swain & Son's prices. They will not be undersold.

The ladies should not fail to see that elegant line of spring wraps at Rosenstein's, Brunswick.

R. W. Fordyce, the Keytesville Mercantile company's first-class tailor, returned from Pierceton, Indiana, Wednesday morning and is again ready for business at the old stand.

The residence of Valentine Kahlor, one of the Courier's friends of near Triplett, narrowly escaped being destroyed by fire last Saturday. The flames were fortunately extinguished before much damage was done.

Marriage License.

Frank Dobbin and Miss Rosa Beatty; C. A. Williams and Miss Arrena B. White; J. A. Clemens and Miss Ellen McCallum; Berry Smith and Miss Rosa Fitzgerald.

Mrs. R. B. Kilpatrick, of Sumner, will spend the summer in California with her brother, while "Bruce" will stay at home to feed the chickens, herd the ducks and familiarize himself with the dish rag.

O. G. Chapman, of near Cottrell school house, bought 140 acres of bottom land, lying 1 1/2 miles north-west of Keytesville, the latter part of last week from L. D. Hyde. Consideration, $840 or $6 an acre.

Rosenstein, of Brunswick, has all the latest novelties in dress goods and has the largest stock to select from in North Missouri. You can't fail to be pleased both in quality of goods and prices.

Doctors Middleton & Broadus are graduates of the dental department of the University of Tennessee. Dr. Broadus will visit Keytesville, Monday, May 1st, and remain a week. Give him a call. At Sneed's hotel.

The man who smokes the most La Take cigars between now and September 1st, I will send him to the world's fair or the other place. For further particulars call on George Klingbeil, manufacturer of La Take cigars, Brunswick, Mo.

We were mistaken last week in stating that Mr. W. F. Neal's sister would run the Via hotel property in Salisbury, for which Mr. Neal recently traded. Mr. A. Brown, the present popular host, will continue as landlord for some time at least.

Why send to St. Louis or other large cities for dress goods when you can buy anything from calico to the finest silks at Rosenstein's, Brunswick, for less than city prices?

John S. Vanderberg, a day laborer of this place, is suffering from an injured eye in which he was struck with a stick of stove wood while wielding an axe at B. G. Willett's woodpile the latter part of last week. It is feared that John's peep-er has been seriously impaired, but we trust the result will not be as bad as at first supposed.

THERE'S MONEY IN IT

If you can use the goods, we will pay you liberally to help us

MOVE OUR STOCK!

Some one has to do the moving, and why not you?

Listen, and Profit From What We Say!

1 bbl sugar syrup, 40c per gal; 37c in 5 gal lots. 2 bbl apple vinegar, 20c pr gal; 17c in 5 gal lots. 4 cases Greenwich & Merry War lye, 7 boxes 5c. 10 cases Blue-head matches, 75c per gross, box. 5 cases Clairrette soap, $4 per box, 6 cakes 25c. Keg soda, 5c per pound. Good tea, 30c per lb. Good bag figs and raisins, 3 pounds for 25 cents. One lot—3 knives or 3 forks or 3 spoons with baking powder, 40c per can. To close out—1-2 barrel Venetian Red, 2 cts per pound, and 1 bbl Yellow Ocher, 2c per lb. A few gallons mixed paint, 90c per gal; 50c per half gal; 25c per quart. 10,000 Envelopes, 5 and 10 cents per 1-4 ream. Note paper, 25 cents per 1-4 ream. Coperas, 3 pounds, 10 cents; 10 pounds, 20 cents. 25 ounces bulk quinine, 40 cents per ounce. 50 ounces P. & W. quinine, 50 cents per ounce. Beggs' Blood Purifier $1 bottle, 75 cents. Hood's Sarsaparilla $1 bottle, 85 cents. Scott's Emulsion $1 bottle, 85 cents. Warner Safe Cure $1.25 bottle, $1.10. Old Sailor Liniment $1 bottle, 85 cents. Fig Syrup 50 cent bottle, 45 cents. All other patent medicines at same reductions. 8,000 cigars form $1 to $4 per box of 50.

Cats Filled with Smoking Tobacco, 10 Cents.

Fiberless Cocoanut. Try it. Oranges, 25 cents per dozen; Bananas, 20 to 25 cents per dozen; 3 pounds mixed candy, 25 cents; Star tobacco, 45 cents per pound; 12 pound butts, 41 cents; H. & P. Tobacco, 12 pound butts, 25 cents.

WALL PAPER!

Reduced from 12 1-2 to 10 cents; 15 to 12 1-2 cents; 20 to 15 cents; 25 to 20 cents; 40 to 30 cents; 50 to 40 cents; 75 to 65 cents per bolt.

COME AND SEE OUR LINE!

Sample of our new paper to be shipped later on, on exhibit. These prices are for thirty days only, and it takes CASH OR PRODUCE to buy them.

Sneed's Drug & Grocery Company,

LEADERS IN LOW PRICES,

Keytesville,

Missouri.

We are much pained to hear of the sad accident which befell "Pap" Miner, of Salisbury, last Saturday, mention of which is made in our Salisbury correspondence. "Pap" will be glad to learn that in his misfortune he has not been forgotten by his numerous Keytesville friends, among whom Capt. Wallace raised some $55 or $60 for "Pap's" benefit, Wednesday.

The latest out is the Columbian face veiling at Mrs. C. P. Vandiver's.

Luther Jackson is the proud owner of a fine Irish setter "pup," which was presented to him last Friday by Wm. Cravens, of near Salisbury. Luther says he will be "in it" when the ducks come in next fall.

Solomon Baker, the Mendon shoemaker, died of pneumonia at the house of his sister, Mrs. C. Dewese, near Guthridge Mills, last Friday night.

At a meeting of the local Building and Loan association, held last Monday night, J. T. Jefferson borrowed on three shares at a premium of $51 a share.

It will be to your interest to get our figures on Lumber and Builders' Hardware before you buy.

KEYTESVILLE LUMBER CO.

This is the season for tornadoes and cyclones. See Holcomb and have insurance written on your property.

The second quarterly meeting for Keytesville circuit will be held at Asbury Chapel next Saturday and Sunday.

We sell the Hummer riding plow, warranted to beat them all. Try it. Kitting & Walter, Keytesville, Mo.

ADMINISTRATORS NOTICE.

Notice is hereby given that letters of administration on the estate of Wm. R. Williams, deceased, were granted to the undersigned by the probate court of the county of Chariton, state of Missouri, at Keytesville, on the twenty-sixth (26th) day of April, 1893. All persons having claims against said estate are required to exhibit the same to the undersigned for allowance within one year after the date of said letters, or they may be precluded from any benefit of said estate, and if such claims be not exhibited within two years from the time of this publication they will be forever barred. B. F. Moons, Administrator.

THE WORLD'S FAIR!

Is Not Open Yet!

But Our New

SPRING STOCK!

Is, and we invite the ladies of Keytesville and vicinity to call early and inspect our beautiful New Styles in

Spring Dress Goods, Silks

AND ALL THE NEW SHADES IN

Silk Sublime, Bengaline, Glarie, Pongees, Henriettas, Serges, China Silk, Wool Challies, And all the cheaper grades in Dress Goods.

Attention Gentlemen

We have just received the largest and most carefully selected assortment, best quality and greatest variety in the latest styles in

CLOTHING, HATS, SHOES

Etc., ever brought to Chariton County and we invite you to call and inspect our stock before making your Spring Purchases.

People's Dry Goods Company,

KEYTESVILLE, MISSOURI.